Three divers had previously won. (Note: second BigTen gold-medalist. Michigan's Alecia Humphrey won in 1995. (Note: Fesenko ONLY Big Ten woman under 1:51.0/1:50.0. (Note: win thwarted Florida's Gemma Spofforth, treble-defending champ, from winning a record fourth-consecutive gold. Six years ago Auburn's Kirsty Coventry thwarted Cal's treble-defending champ Natalie Coughlin from going four-for-four by winning too. Coughlin, like Spofforth here, finished runner-up. Interestingly, both Coughlin (100 back.) and Coventry (200.), won Olympic golds later that summer in Athens, and both repeated four years later in Beijing. Who wudda thunk it?)

Hyman's record, in turn, lasted until summer of 2009, when finally broken by Mary DeScenza @ the World Championships in Rome. Who wudda thunk it? Not EVEN Jim Plunkett!
